

PANATHLON INTERNATIONAL

Ludis Iungit

The Panathlete's Charter

The honour of being a Panathlete pledges me::

1. to honour the motto "Ludis Jungit and to promote the panathletic ideal;
2. to observe the rules of the Club to which I belong;
3. to do my best as a volunteer to help my Club achieve its goals;
4. to develop and cultivate friendship with all Panathletes, and to help new members settle in rapidly to the life of our Clubs;
5. to operate so that sport may be enjoyed and experienced by all men and all peoples as a cultural achievement;
6. to act always and everywhere to assert sports ethics based on fair-play;
7. to do everything possible so that young people in my town, in my region, in my country may receive a healthy sports education;
8. to show how sports should be practised;
9. to be an enthusiastic spectator and at the same time an exemplary sportsman in watching a sporting event;
10. to be a true ambassador of sport - intended as an emancipating instrument for men and to oppose whatever may spoil it.

I shall enhance my commitment by regularly attending the meetings and events organised by my Club and by other Clubs belonging to Panathlon International.
