Circ. n. 06/24

Rapallo, 18th March 2024

Re: Re-opening of Applications - Continental Areas of Europe, America and District Switzerland

Dear Presidents,

The International Board, which met on 14 March 2024, resolved to reopen the deadline for the submission of candidatures for

International Board members limited to the Continental Areas of Europe, America and Swiss District

After checking the proposals received, it emerged that the candidature expressed for the European Continental Area did not meet the requirements of the Statute and was therefore not admitted.

It is also recalled that, following Article 9.5 of the Statute:

-omissis-

Every Continental Area or District is entitled to one Board Member every 30 regularly affiliated Clubs, with a maximum of 5 Board Members per District if their nationality is not the same as the President's. Otherwise, the limit is a maximum of 4 Board Members per District if their nationality is the same as the newly elected President's.

Consequently, in the event of the election of an Italian President, the availability of at least one additional candidate, among the geographical areas, is necessary to maintain the international balance.

After this introduction, the clubs that have not yet expressed their proposals are invited to send further applications to the General Secretariat by 15 April

Please note that they must be submitted by at least 10 clubs and that each club can only express one candidature.
