Venezia – Scuola Grande San Giovanni Evangelista

Founded in 1261, it is one of the oldest and most prestigious Scuole Grandi in Venice. The complex, renowned for its extraordinary Renaissance architecture, is graced by the monumental staircase designed by Mauro Codussi and the magnificent marble screen by Pietro Lombardo. To this day, it remains one of the most significant sites in Venetian history, art and culture.

The Scuola houses the precious relic of the Holy Cross, at the heart of a centuries-old tradition of faith, art and Venetian history.

A setting of extraordinary prestige in which to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Panathlon Club Venezia and Panathlon International.
